A HOLIDAY ACTIVITY

Level 3–4

Use all the following information to plan a 46-day Rugby World Cup tour holiday. We've listed ticket costs, entertainment, All Blacks timetables, accommodation, travel and meal costs. You will have a budget of $6,000 so get the best value for money you can. Spend as much money as you can because when you get back you don't need any money.

Conditions

- You must attend every game of the possible seven All Blacks' match days.
- You can't omit any meals.
- You must choose from the accommodation that we propose.
- You must use taxis, buses or trains to get to an entertainment venue. You can travel to the games for free.
- You can go on the internet to look up more city attractions.
- You must arrive on 9 September and return home on 24 October.
